ARLINGTON CELEBRATES NEXT FRIDAY

'Come on in, fellows, the water is fine'

At one o'clock Saturday afternoon Arlington Heights swim pool was lined with youngsters waiting for the big splash that would officially start the 1941 swim season. The splash occurred a minute after the above picture was snapped. Carol Ehret was tossed into the pool by Oren Breda, life guard captain, and Geo. K. Volz, president of the park board.

These youngsters and a hundred of others are making the most of their opportunities these warm days at the pool.

With the use of season tickets they are able to enjoy themselves to their heart's content. Some of the youngsters are using sponsor tickets that have been given to them by some adult who does not swim, but wanted to show their appreciation of a recreational program in Arlington Heights by subscribing to a sponsorship. Such tickets are on sale from $1.50 for children under 13, to $5.00 for the family season ticket.

Among them a De Luxe four door DeSoto automobile purchased from the local dealer, Albert Meyer. See any member of the Legion for complete details as to how this car may make you a happy owner at low cost.

W. Krause seriously injured in fall

Mr. W. Krause, father of Walter and E. J. Krause of Arlington Heights, received serious injuries Wednesday afternoon when he fell from near the top of a ladder in the former A & P store. The ladder tipped and he fell through to the basement floor, striking some pipes between the two floors. He was taken at once to a hospital. Both his arms and his right leg are broken. There appears to be no internal injuries.

Food stores close Wednesday afternoons

Arlington Heights food stores beginning this week are closing Wednesday afternoons. Cooperative approval of the plan came too late to give advanced newspaper publicity and many housewives found it difficult to secure meats and groceries for their Wednesday evening meal.

The closing this week came almost as big a surprise to the storekeepers themselves as to their customers. Standard working hours for all meat departments brought the closing decision to a head Wednesday morning. The stores regret any temporary inconvenience that might have been caused to their customers, but now that everybody understands the hours, everyone will benefit, including the clerks whose hours in the past have been unduly long.

Stores will not close on Wednesday afternoons on weeks that include a legal holiday. They will be open next Wednesday, July 2. Saturday nights, the stores will close at 8 o'clock.

Other business places will probably follow the action of the food stores. A full announcement will appear in next week's issue.

Walter Karstens finds way to keep cool in hot weather

There are many air conditioning systems, but Walter Karstens made an addition this spring to the equipment in his residence and the funeral home which he thinks is "the tops." In place of pulling around an electric fan or churning old air around the home, under the antiquated systems, Walter just touches a button and turns a water valve, then sits back in his chair and enjoys the evening paper or a good nap.

Water cooling is recognized as the perfect cooling system and the only one that the owner can choose the exact temperature that he wants his rooms. Mr. Karstens is fortunate to possess an excellent well and the water which he uses in cooling the air can be used to sprinkle the lawn, which explains the velvety texture of the grass around the Karstens funeral home.

Fresh air is taken in the system and pushed through coils through which cold water is constantly flowing. The greater the flow of water, the colder the air becomes. The water comes from the well at less than 50 degrees and the room temperature of the Karstens home can be made entirely too cold for comfort, even these hot days. Here is how this elementary cooling plant operates:

Cold water is pumped through the coils. Then the fan draws warm air through dust and pollen eliminating filters and forces it over and through the cold coils. The cooled air then passes up through the ducts and into the various rooms through inconspicuous grilles on the walls.

Arlington co-operates in USO campaign

Arlington Heights is throwing its full cooperation behind the United Service Organization campaign to raise funds to establish recreation centers adjoining army camps. The first meeting of the local group was held Wednesday evening when C. L. Griffith was elected chairman and Raymond E. Hayes, secretary. A second meeting is being held at the Herald office to press. Arlington Heights is off to a late start as many of the neighboring communities have nearly completed their campaign.

More than a million young soldiers and sailors leave their camps and stations each week-end, according to military authorities.

A scant five per cent have the time or money to reach home. What the others are doing is a cause of grave concern, not only to their officers, but to their folks.

The purpose of leave is to keep the service men's spirits up. It's a relief from discipline, say the authorities. The men are strictly on their own. That's the American way, in sharp contrast to customs in the dictator states whose soldiers dance incessantly to the whiplack of gold-braided bosses.

We've never had so large an army, in peace time. Hence the problem's scope surpasses all experience. In scores of communities, boys from nearby training camps can't even find room to sit down. They decorate curbs and steps and festoon lamp posts. They can't get into the movies, decent hotels, restaurants or dance spots. Shoddy, ruthless, predatory interests are mushrooming far faster than legitimate enterprises can expand. Rackets of all descriptions, menacing health as well as service pay, already are abundant near almost every army and navy base.

There is a hope of remedying present conditions, and it's the only one in sight, in the opinion of qualified observers. Three letters name it: U.S.O.—the United States Organizations for National Defense.

Vote on school addition Saturday

The election on the proposition of building an addition to the south school and issuing bonds in the amount of $50,000 to finance the building was recently petitioned by over four hundred legal voters of School District No. 25 will be held Saturday at the South School.

The polls will be open from 12:00 o'clock noon until 7:00 p. m. All legal voters of the school district are entitled to vote.

The shortage of classroom space is acute, the bonding power is available, lowest interest rates are obtainable and the time for building is apparently better than any time in the next several years. Voters are urged to express their wishes at this opportunity.

Draft board No. 1 efficiency wins praise from state

No appeals filed; no conscientious objectors here

Draft board No. 1 are not throwing any bouquets their way but some rather nice things are occasionally heard about the manner in which this board has been operating. The draftees of the district are also of unusual caliber.

There has not been a single registrant up to the present time, who has filed an appeal against the rulings of the local board. Adopting a policy of fairness and showing a willingness to give an adequate hearing to all who appear before them the boys called for the draft have recognized the justness of their decisions. The smoothness with which the board has operated and the freedom of complaints has brought expressions of surprise from the state headquarters.

The first call for service of conscientious objectors was received by the board last week. The call went unanswered because there are no such objectors in district one.

Cook County Selective Service Board No. 1 is now in new headquarters. It practically has a building erected for its occupancy. The American Legion new home adjoining the park, corner Miner and Douglas, was rushed to completion the past few weeks to enable the draft board to move to the quarters provided for them in the new structure.

There is a commodious outer office in which will be found the clerk, Frank O. Smith while there is an adjoining private office for the interviewing of draftees.

St. James church to hold summer festival July 11-13

The St. James church of Arlington Heights will hold their summer festival July 11, 12 and 13, at the church grounds, North State rd., Arlington Heights. Turkey dinners will be served Sunday, July 13, from 11 a. m. to 3:00 p. m. There will be refreshments and amusements of all kinds.

Turf Billiard parlors new smart and clean

Billiard players will find the Turf Parlors, corner Campbell and Vail streets, an ideal place to go these summer evenings. These parlors have been completely remodeled and now offer four first class tables and fine equipment. The establishment, operated by Michael Hogay, extends an invitation to the billiard loving public to inspect the new quarters.

Early edition next week

This paper will go to press Tuesday afternoon next week to enable all readers to receive their home newspaper before July 4th. Dead line on Palatine and DuPage county editions is Wednesday morning.

Deadline for classified page is Tuesday noon; automobile ads. Monday night.

Next Tuesday is registration day for Army service

All of 21 years since Oct. 16 must report at Arlington

Every young man who has reached the age of 21 years since October 16, 1940, is required by federal law to present himself for selective service registration next Tuesday at the office of the local board which has jurisdiction over the registrant's home address.

All residents of the six north-west townships in Cook county, Barrington, Palatine, Wheeling, Schaumburg, Elk Grove, and Hanover, except that portion that lies within the city of Elgin, will report at the headquarters of select-one at Arlington Heights, which is now located at 121 N. Douglas ave., opposite Arlington Heights field house.

Members of the draft board, the secretary and stenographer will be on duty to receive the registrations.

Registration hours are from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m., and each registrant should go to his own local board office as early as possible. Any man who lives outside Cook county and happens to be in this county on next Tuesday can register at any local board regardless of location.

Failure to register for selective service subjects the law violator to federal imprisonment or a large fine, or both.

Sales Tax cut one-third next Tuesday

Retailers through Illinois have set wheels in motion to give the consumer public full benefit from Governor Green's $32,500,000 annual sales tax reduction, it was announced by the Illinois Federation of Retail Associations. Effective July 1, Illinois will go to a 2 per cent retailers' occupation tax from the present 3 per cent which has been in effect since July 1, 1935.

The bracket plan endorsed by the association provides for:

One cent on sales of from 15 to 65 cents.
Two cents on sales of 66 cents to $1.24.
Three cents on sales of $1.25 to $1.74.
Four cents on sales of $1.75 to $2.24.
Five cents on sales of $2.25 to $2.74 and so forth.

To install new pastor at St. John's church Sunday

The Reverend W. F. Kamphenkel will be installed at an evening service of St. John's church Sunday at 7:30. Rev. Wm. L. Rest, president of Northern Illinois Synod, will deliver the installation address and perform the installation service. He will be assisted by the Reverend J. H. Ellerbrake, former pastor of the church. Invitations have been extended to pastors and their respective congregations from neighboring churches to attend.

The church council has arranged an informal reception to be held in the church parlors immediately after the service, when all may have the opportunity to become acquainted with Rev. and Mrs. Kamphenkel and their daughter, Carolyn, and visit with friends, old and new.

Refreshments will be provided by members of the congregation who sincerely hope that all their friends and neighbors will join them in this evening of fellowship.

Rev. Kamphenkel took over his new duties June 3 and has found a warm welcome in Arlington Heights. "Arlington is rightfully named the City of Good Neighbors," was the way the new pastor expressed it when he made his first call at the Herald office Tuesday afternoon.

Sixty year old school bell again calls "class to order"

Eight members of the 1891 graduating class of Arlington Heights again answered the call June 18 of the old school bell that called them to class fifty years ago. As far as can be determined, it is the same bell that hung in the belfry of the old school nearly seventy years.

The bell, properly mounted and decorated, was accorded the place of honor around which the tables were arranged for the chicken dinner that was served that evening to eight of the ten surviving members of the 1891 class.

The class originally numbered 13. Three have died and two who were unable to return for the reunion sent letters to be read to the assembled group. They are Mrs. Wm. Reynolds, Paul's Valley, Oklahoma and Mrs. W. B. Beardsley, Rose Pine, La. Autographed mementoes were returned to the two by their eight classmates who spent a happy three hours that evening enjoying the dinner, telling tales on each other and looking over the mementoes that had been brought by individual members of the class.

The greatest interest was shown in the old school records which gave the grades and deportment records of the members of the class. Some of them were rather shocked over the poor grades they actually made. No one expected Geo. Volz to have rated high in deportment, but Wm. Muller was not as well behaved when a boy as he is today according to the old records.

Chas. McElhose, another of the boys explained the marks of "50," "60," or "70" as really good grades. "They marked them lower in those days," said Chas. Theodore Miltzer, another member of the class, was not worried about deportment, but there was only an occasional "90" after his name.

The class members and their guests gathered in the library of the North school at 7:00 o'clock. They were all on time when suddenly the peel of the school bell was heard and they "hurried" (not as fast as fifty years ago) to the cafeteria of the school.

Geo. K. Volz acted as master of ceremonies. Theodore Miltzer welcomed the class and recalled the old days when there were no sidewalks or street crossings. Those were the days of the oil lamps and high wheeled bicycles. He and the others who spoke that evening paid tribute to Prof. Hess, the principal of the school who as a mark of his position always wore a silk hat and frock coat.

Mr. Volz had before him the original graduation program and called on each class member in the order that they spoke that same evening fifty years ago. The class members told some rather amusing tales of each other, which they could laugh about fifty years after they occurred.

The members of the class who attended the reunion were: Geo. K. Volz, Wm. C. Muller, Chas. McElhose, Theodore Miltzer, Miss May Muller, Mrs. Minnie Beaumont (McNab) of Arlington Heights; Mrs. Alto Agate (Kettering), Orland Park, Ill.; Mrs. Frank Dohmeyer (Fannie Wheeler), Barrington. All gave short talks.

C. V. Baker, present principal of the school spoke in behalf of his predecessor, Prof. Hess. (Unofficially, Mr. Baker gave his opinion that he knew those class grades of fifty years ago were entirely too low.)

Wells working to full capacity

Arlington Heights water department is just keeping even with the consumption these hot days. Supt. Wm. Leuehring is keeping his fingers crossed that there will be no accident that will cripple present wells, which are being operated 24 hours a day.

The northside well is pumping 400,000 gallons a day; the other wells about 200,000. Decision to drill a new well did not come any too soon. Work on the latter well is at a standstill, awaiting arrival of a larger drilling machine.

The water department had a narrow escape last Friday when the mains were opened to fill the swimming pool. That pool holds nearly half a million gallons, and under normal operation uses an additional 80,000 gallons a day.

Consumption has increased greatly which means added water revenue. In this instance it is not the money that worries the village board, but lack of water to sell.

5,000 visitors

Police Request

In order to avoid traffic jams and to allow as much auto parking space as possible for visitors from out of town, Arlington police ask that local residents leave their cars at home and walk to the park. They anticipate the largest Fourth of July crowd in history. The general public is asked to cooperate with the special police who will have full police authority that day.

Arlington Heights is out to beat the 4th of July record that they established in 1939 and 1940, when vast crowds filled the park for the afternoon and evening programs. The committee is not resting on previously earned laurels to bring the crowds this year, but are offering an improved program. Profiting by experiences of other years, they have ironed out small obstacles.

Arlington recreation park is worthy of a visit any time. Its natural facilities include swimming, wading, tennis, ball diamonds, four croquet courts, horse shoe sets and shuffle board — all there to be enjoyed by the general public. The park board will operate the swimming pool and will offer other facilities to the general public upon request. Ample toilet facilities are provided in the shelter house.

Arlington Heights celebration is primarily a civic venture and is not being promoted solely from a financial standpoint. There will be plenty of entertainment and enjoyment for the adult or the child who has little money to spend as well as for those who expect to "shoot the works." Truly Arlington Heights will be a great place to spend the Fourth.

Gasoline, a chicken, groceries, cigarettes, a permanent, and many other prizes will be handed out to visitors at the Arlington Heights Fourth of July celebration donated by local merchants. These merchants' prizes and cash prizes for

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by a Cosmic Force?" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 22.
The Golden Text was, "The Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. In his hand are the deep places of the earth: the strength of the hills is his also" (Psalms 95: 3, 4).
Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Bless the Lord, O my soul. O Lord my God, thou art very great; thou art clothed with honour and majesty. Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment: who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain: Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed for ever" (Psalms 104: 1, 2, 5).
The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The three great verities of Spirit, omnipotence, omniscience, omnibenevolence. Spirit possessing all power, filling all space, constituting all Science, contradict forever the belief that matter can be actual. These eternal verities reveal primeval existence as the radiant reality of God's creation, in which all that He has made is pronounced by His wisdom good" (p. 109).

Solemn ceremony inducts twenty special police
The twenty special police officers of Arlington Heights received their stars with an impressive ceremony Monday night. After taking the path of office administered to them by Herman Kosack, village clerk, Mayor Goedke pressed upon them the importance of their office and the responsibilities that they had assumed. He asked them to be ever vigilant of the town's cases that they are not in a position to handle.
At the conclusion of the Mayor's address the stars were presented to each new officer by Chief Skoog.

ARL 30
'This is not our war; we're being sold a war'
—J. H. MASELTER
"This is not our war, we're being sold a war," were the words of J. H. Masetler before a crowded house at the Arlington Heights field Tuesday evening. Mr. Masetler spoke from the same platform a week earlier and at the special request of the local American First Chapter, was making a return engagement. Great as was his talk at the first meeting, the address Tuesday evening was even better in the minds of many who heard him both times.

Mr. Masetler fired facts at his audience in rapid succession and was repeatedly applauded. The thoughts carried home by those who heard him can be partly summed up in the following statements made by the speaker:
"The motto of America First committee is 'It is noble to live for one's country' instead of 'It is noble to die for one's country.'"
"This Is Not Our War."
"It takes 7½ tons of baggage to transport one soldier, therefore it would take 7½ million tons of baggage for an invasion. A physical invasion is preposterous. Now the war mongers are trying to scare us by saying that Hitler is going to invade by economic pressure."
"Our total foreign trade amounts to approximately 5% of the entire business done by the U. S."
"The Lend-Lease bill provides for a $7,000,000,000 loan to England by United States while all of her colonies sell on C.O.D. basis."
"We should be strong to ward off invasion."
"We love United States more than we love Great Britain and more than we hate Hitler."
"We should be deadly opposed to Union now as advocated by England."

"83% of the population of United States are opposed to war."
"If the Josh Lee bill is passed a census of the wealth of the United States will be taken. A $10,000 fine will be imposed upon anyone trying to evade the law."
"There would be a revolution in the United States before we would help Russia with our soldiers."

Bill Reese has best vacation in his life
William Reese has returned to the Reese Hardware store with stories about his vacation that are a yard long. There are some fish in those stories, but they are all true according to Bill and he ought to know.
Mr. and Mrs. Reese went to Northrop, Minn., to visit relatives, from which Mr. Reese continued to Star Lake, Minn., which is about 27 miles north of Fairmont, Minn. "It was the best vacation I ever had," says the hardware merchant, "I caught 54 pickerel and was sorry that I had to throw many of them back into the water. The fish would fairly jump for the bait. I expect that a lot of Arlington fishermen will be asking for the address of that fishing spot."

Staff sergeant Ernst returns to private life

While a majority of the young men of the country are worrying about their army service, Sgt. John J. Ernst, of Arlington Heights, is sitting on top of the world, or is he? He has fulfilled his obligation to his country and has been honorably discharged. He is now looking for a job and from experiences of the past week, he is not sure that it is going to be so easy to find. Sgt. Ernst is a plain every day citizen now and when he dropped into the Herald office Tuesday morning the editor welcomed the opportunity to ask him a few questions. The editor wanted to know if army life is really as bad as some of the letters received at the Herald paint the picture. He gave an emphatic "no."

Mr. Ernst can understand how the boys feel, however. The boys probably did not want to enter the army; they are not accustomed to hard knocks and letters to the home newspaper and their friends give them the opportunity to "get it off their chests." Ernst says that mothers and members of the families at home should not worry about the experiences their boy is passing through. Ten chances to one, he will return home in a better physical condition than when he left home. He at least will have learned to "take it" and he will be better equipped to find his way through the following years of his life.

The editor, after one look at Ernst, is ready to believe it all. John appears to be in perfect health, as strong as a blacksmith and while he perhaps would never want to go through his army experiences again, he will always treasure them.

"All I need now is one of those jobs that they say is laying around waiting for some non-draft man to pick up," were the words of John J. Ernst, private citizen, as he left the Herald office.

John enlisted in the army in 1933, joining the headquarters battery and ammunition train of the 1st battalion 202nd coast artillery. He re-enlisted at the end of his first three year term and remained the entire six years with the same outfit he started. He was a private a year and a half, a corporal 2½ years; line sergeant 15 months; staff sergeant nine months.

Large Crowds at Swimming Pool

Summer activity program starts Monday

Registration Saturday Morning
All children who plan to participate in the summer activity program are asked to enroll at the field house Saturday morning at 9:30 a. m. to facilitate the keeping of records and planning for expenses and miscellaneous tournaments which will be held at the close of the season.

Arlington swimming pool opened with a big splash Saturday as 259 people cooled off in the large outdoor basin at Recreation Park. Sunday found 451 seeking relief at the pool and 410 came on washday.

Hot weather and a strong community spirit have combined to send early swim ticket sales soaring to a new high. By Tuesday night the park board cash register showed $900 in season tickets.

The recreation commission is still on the job trying to make Arlington Heights so "swim conscious" that there will be a ticket in every family. You can do your part by making this fine pool self supporting by ordering your tickets today. Rates for season tickets are: family tickets $5.00, single adult tickets $3.50, teen age 13 to 18 $2.50, child's $1.50. Tickets may be obtained at the field house, or by calling any one of the following recreation commission members: Charles Emmett 243-R, H. A. Ashton 566, Marion Hogate 219-J, Robert Beatty 524, Herman Baumann 284, Mrs. Jos. Wisersky 604 or Mrs. Ross Richards 1320.

The first part of the recreation commission's plan to provide the children of the community with supervised play activities for the summer months got under way with a bang Tuesday morning when 48 children enrolled for swimming lessons. Miss Ruppel and Mr. Breda, instructors, have divided the children into three classes to be instructed Tuesday and Thursday mornings as follows: girls—beginners 9 a. m., girls who can swim a little 10 a. m., boys 11 a. m. time to get them started and all children are urged to attend these classes as the instructors are especially well qualified, both having had considerable experience in teaching swimming.

"You live in Arlington Heights and don't know how to swim?" is one question the youngsters will not want to be asked. Now is the time to get them

It was stated in this paper last week that a class for women would be formed if there was enough demand for instruction. A number of ladies have signified their interest in swimming lessons and a class will be organized next Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. All women who wish to join this group are asked to register at the field house and attend the first class next Wednesday morning.

Children and adults wishing to take private swimming lessons may make such arrangements with Miss Ruppel or Mr. Breda.

A junior life saving class will be conducted some time in July, the date to be announced later.

Summer Activity Program
Arlington Heights recreation commission is planning a summer activities program for boys and girls of the community and proposes to offer organized recreation from 9 to 12 o'clock on Monday to Friday inclusive, each week. The program has been tentatively set up as follows:

'Long shot' pays record price at Arlington

Palatine owner had not placed a dime on horse

Karl Mayer, Palatine sportsman, astonished the racing world as well as himself Tuesday afternoon when he put over the longest long shot in the history of Arlington Park.

When Mr. Mayer's "Sharpshooter," a three year old brown gelding by Tetrarch-Gloria Sharpe came thundering up on the rail to down the two heavily played choices, Mr. Secret and War Tower, he turned out to be the longest priced winner in Arlington's history, paying $13.00 to win, $141.00 to place and $43.80 to show.

Sharpshooter had never even come close to winning a race in his few previous starts and Mr. and Mrs. Mayer had advised their trainer, F. Gieseker to scratch the horse Tuesday morning, but the trainer thought the race would do the horse good and the Mayers left the track after telling the trainer to do whatever he wanted to.

The record long shot win was the result.

Neither Mr. or Mrs. Mayer made any bet on their horse, which in previous races had shown a tendency to quit.

But in Tuesday's race Sharpshooter showed that he was sharp and came on up the stretch like a good one.

Sharpshooter was born and raised on the Mayer's Palatine farm, where there are two younger colts by the same dam in training.

U. S. O. drive a success

Palatine's drive for the U.S.O. has been completed and final figures are being compiled for the report to headquarters.

Palatine people responded to the plea to "back up the boys" in a fine manner and a large number of individuals, firms and organizations made substantial contributions to the good cause.

One of the finest demonstrations of team work was given by the local employees of the Arthur T. McIntosh interests who, as a group, raised over $50 for the U.S.O.

The committee in charge of the drive desires to express to every individual, firm and organization taking part in the drive, its sincere appreciation of their efforts.

To all the persons who helped in the collection of funds and to those who contributed the funds, the committee expresses its hearty thanks for a job well done.

Besides the funds raised by the U.S.O. committee, the Lutheran congregation has raised something over $200 among its membership for work along the same lines.

Last year for fireworks sale

This will be a memorable year for the youngsters of today who will look back upon it as the last time that they were able to buy and shoot firecrackers. New state law bars their sale after this Fourth. Local authorities ruled out the sale of fireworks within the municipality years ago, but they can still be purchased at various roadside stands.

Associated fireworks stands, which carry an announcement in this paper are located as follows: Milwaukee ave., just north of Lake ave.

Milwaukee ave., just south of Wheeling limits near White Bear Inn.

Arlington Heights, Northwest Highway opposite race track.

Palatine, Quentins rd. 2 blocks south of Chicago ave.

Elizabeth Wehner is bride of Robert Gapinski

June 14 Miss Elizabeth Wehner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wehner of 715 North Haddon, became the bride of Robert Gapinski of Des Plaines. The wedding took place at 8 a. m. in the St. James Catholic church with Father Stier officiating. The bride wore for the service a street length dress of white with white accessories with a corsage of white roses. Following the wedding the guests enjoyed a dinner served at the Wehner home. The young couple are enjoying a trip to Northern Wisconsin, and upon their return will make their home in Des Plaines.

Margaret Siese, James Brennan are married

White peonies, hydrangeas, and lilies, white wedding bells and streamers formed the background for the wedding of Miss Margaret Siese, when she became the bride of James Brennan of Elgin on Saturday afternoon at four o'clock in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Siese, 116 North Pine Arlington Heights.

Rev. Herman Kossack performed the ceremony before a group of friends and relatives of the bride and groom. Mrs. James Groves played Lohengrin's wedding march. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white lace and chiffon crepe. Her veil, long length, was of tulle and her flowers were white roses, and white carnations.

Mrs. Christ Dettman served the bride as matron of honor and was gown in peach chiffon, and wore a tiara of peach and turquoise flowers in her hair. She carried tea roses and carnations. Mr. Christ Dettman served as best man.

The mother of the bride was gown in beige lace and wore a corsage of tea roses and the groom's mother was gown in lavender print and wore a corsage of tea roses and bachelor buttons.

In the evening a wedding dinner was served to the sixty guests and bride party at Kay's tavern, where dancing was enjoyed.

The young couple left Sunday for a week's wedding trip to Cleveland, Ohio, and upon their return will make their home in Elgin where they have recently purchased a new home.

Mr. Brennan is employed as assistant traffic manager for the Elgin Storage and Transfer Co.

Mrs. Newburg of Sister Lake, Mich., was a guest from a distance.

Mrs. Jasper entertains Rose Holt club

Wednesday of last week, Mrs. Al Jasper was hostess to fifteen members of the Rose Holt club at a one o'clock pot-luck luncheon. The affair turned out to be a surprise for Mrs. Jasper when the guests brought with them a beautifully decorated cake, in honor of the 25th wedding anniversary of the Jaspers, which occurred recently. Hattie Johnson, who had made the wedding cake had decorated it with a bride and groom, silver candy, doves and hearts and it made a lovely centerpiece for the luncheon table.

The Rose Holt club is an Eastern Star club, named after the Worthy Grand Matron of Illinois who served in 1928, and all of its members served as worthy Matrons in that year.

Two members of the club who are now serving as Illinois officers were present at the party, the Grand Conductress of the Grand Chapter of the O. E. S. of Illinois, Esther Gielow and the Vice Grand Guardian of Jobs Daughters, Clara Smith.

Following the luncheon a business meeting was held, and the guests enjoyed an afternoon of cards. Prizes were awarded by the hostess.

Rev. Seegers, jr., Mt. Prospect, takes Wisconsin bride

Miss Vita Heshke, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Kachara Heshke, of Hildert, Wis., became the bride of the Rev. Conrad Seegers, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Seegers, Sr., of Mt. Red Cross sewing headquarters at Mrs. Paul Carrolls

American Red Cross Production Headquarters are now at the home of the local production chairman, Mrs. Paul Carroll, 116 W. Euclid st., phone Arlington Heights 142.

The sewing days at headquarters are Tuesday afternoon and all day Thursday of each week. You may sew at Mrs. Carroll's home or take materials home for sewing or knitting if you prefer to do so.

Emphasis is being placed on knitting for small children, and sewing layettes at the present time. Hospital gowns are also being made. If you prefer machine sewing or hand sewing exclusively, it may be arranged.

You may call for materials at times other than sewing days, but it is advisable to call first so there will surely be someone to take care of your wishes.

The need for these garments has not diminished because of the summer months, but the type of sewing that is being done is somewhat changed.

It is hoped that many new people in the community will find time to work while they are here.

Hickory Hill, girl scout camp, opens Monday

Camp Hickory Hill, girl scout camp, will open its 1941 season June 30.

With a staff of trained counselors under the direction of Miss Marion Hodgins, one of the most active seasons of its history will get under way.

The camp, located just outside of Edgerton, Wisconsin, on Rice Lake, is ideally located for the energetic girl scouts.

A new building to accommodate the growing needs of Hickory Hill has been built this spring and will be used for business and recreation purposes.

For the first time in the history of the camp an appeal for funds to finance these improvements is being made. A dollar sent to the chairman of Camp Hickory Hill, Des Plaines, Illinois, will greatly aid in achieving their goal.

Local girls who will attend the opening session are Marilyn and Jaquelin Morgan of Mt. Prospect, and Bonnie LaLonde of Palatine.

Misses Celia Hausman presented a large and interesting class of piano pupils in a recital last Wednesday evening in the Methodist hall in the presence of a splendid and enthusiastic audience.

Lillian Meyer, Niles, weds Alvin Geffe of Arlington Heights

A very beautiful wedding took place Saturday afternoon, June 21, at 4:30 at St. John's Lutheran church in Niles when Miss Lillian Meyer and Mr. Alvin Geffe were united in marriage by Rev. L. A. Grotheer. Large baskets and vases of gladioli and peonies added their charm to the lovely scene, and an arch of roses decorated the aisle of the church and the altar before which the bride and groom repeated their vows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Meyer 6951 Touhy ave., Niles. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Geffe, Palatine rd., Arlington Heights. Mrs. Lenze, vocalist, sang two very appropriate selections, "Lords Prayer" and "O, Perfect Love."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attired in a gown of lace and net. The bodice of lace was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and her bouffant skirt was of net. Her tulle veil cascaded to her finger tips. She carried a bouquet of white roses, lilies of the valley and gladioli.

Doris Haga of Skokie, was the maid of honor. She was attractive in a gown of her blue velvety marquisette.

Alice Meyer, sister-in-law of the bride and Lillian Bartz were the bridesmaids. Norma Geffe, sister of the groom, was junior bridesmaid. They were dressed alike in gowns of velvety marquisette in aqua, peach and yellow. The girls carried bouquets of roses to match their dresses and wore open roses in their hair.

Ruby Lynne Meyer was the flower girl dressed in long piping velvety marquisette, dropping rose petals as she walked down the aisle with Danny Wasser, nephew of the bridegroom who served as ring bearer and wore dark trousers and white coat.

The grooms attendants included John Pollex, cousin of the groom as best man, and Elmer Meyer, brother of the bride, and August Kruger as ushers. The groom and attendants wore summer formal.

A reception was held at the Wheeling Center school hall, attended by 150 guests. The newlyweds left on a honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls, Washington, D. C. and then on to Pikes Peak in Colorado. After the 7th of July they will be at home in the Roxy apartment in Chicago.

Mr. Walter Armstrong attended the District Convention of the Phi Mu Fraternity over the week-end which was held at Lake Geneva, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Griesby and Richard left Saturday for a two weeks trip through western national parks.

Miss Ruth Fellingham of Spokane, Washington, arrived at the Monroe home on Monday evening and will spend the next few weeks visiting with the Monroe and Fellingham families.

Lorraine Koelling weds Jack Henitt

Miss Lorraine Koelling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Koelling of Arlington Heights, and Mr. Jack Henitt of Elmhurst were married in a lovely service in the St. John's Evangelical church of Arlington Heights on Saturday evening, June 21. Rev. Kampfenkel performed the ceremony at 8 p. m. before a large group of friends and relatives.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a street length gown of white crepe and a tiara of baby breath in her hair. Her flowers were white roses and baby breath. Mrs. Lefroy Weaver of Palatine served as matron of honor and wore an ashen of roses print dress, and a corsage of pink roses. Dorothy Koelling served as bridesmaid and was gowned in a blue print dress and wore a corsage of roses.

Kenneth Koelling, brother of the bride, served as best man and Mr. Harold Koelling, also a brother of the bride, served as usher.

Following the ceremony Mrs. Fred Blohm and Mrs. Ralph Potts sang "Oh Promise Me" accompanied by Mrs. Ben Helfers at the organ. The bride's mother wore for the wedding a green print gown and a corsage of carnations.

The wedding reception was held at the Koelling home for the guests and bridal party.

Taege's and Cranes return from eastern trip

Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Taege and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer W. Crane spent the week of June 16 to 21 inclusive on a trip to our nation's capital.

Good weather prevailed and a very enjoyable trip resulted.

The most impressive sight on the way to and from Washington was the profusion of roses mostly of the rambler variety which were planted along the highways and in adjoining home grounds.

Surely Mother Nature did wonders with her flowers this season and she has provided plenty for all true Americans to enjoy at home in our own land. The mountains are gorgeous in their glory of mountain laurel and other flowering shrubs.

While in Washington the party through the courtesy of Senator Brooks, were privileged to visit the Senate and House of Representatives while in session and to attend the joint memorial session for the deceased members of both branches of Congress.

Visits were also made to Mt. Vernon and to Arlington National cemetery. At the tomb of the Unknown Soldier a perpetual guard of honor is maintained by nearby detachments.

Trips through the various government buildings were very interesting and the view from the tower of the Washington monument was wonderful.

The writer declared that this is a wonderful country, "your land and our land" with many things to see and enjoy. The sentiments of these two couples are the same as all loyal citizens which are "We are glad to be Americans" privileged to enjoy its wonders.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Monroe and family were Sunday guests of Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Monroe of Woodstock.

Miss Ruth Simons of Chambersburg, Penn., and Miss Marnie Simons of Hamburg, Iowa, spent several days at the Oden home last week.

Mt. Prospect Lions set September 11-14 for fall festival

September 11-12-13 and 14 are the dates set by the Mt. Prospect Lions for their annual Fall Festival. Those of you who were among those in attendance last year will remember the excellent exhibits, both commercial and individual, which filled the huge tent used to house them.

This year the Lions expect a bigger and even better display of individual exhibits, as advance information leads them to believe that last year's exhibitors are out to outdo one another in their friendly rivalry.

They also announce that a 1941 Buick sedan will be given to the "Lucky" holder of a ticket, which are already being sold by all the Lions. The price of a ticket is twenty-five cents or a book of five for one dollar. As in other years, these tickets will also be good for merchandise prizes given away each night to those in attendance. It will not be necessary to be on hand to be the winner of the Buick Sedan.

Everybody will be welcome at Mt. Prospect during the festival. Come out and see what the local business men will display, and also what real American people can do in various lines of individual endeavors.

Of course there will be rides and games galore. It is too early to tell what rides and games will be on hand, but it is hoped that all will be of an enjoyable nature of young and old alike.

Another reason why this affair should be supported is that the Lions club extracts no personal benefit from the income. All of the profits, if any, are expended for beautification and improvement of Mt. Prospect, one of Chicago's better suburban developments.

Among the various projects taken over by the local club is proposed parking area along the Chicago & North Western railway directly east and west of the local station. Parking facilities have been woefully inadequate for years, and now that the town is growing so rapidly this fact becomes sadly evident. Local streets are filled with cars which make it difficult to park near the shopping district. With the cooperation of the railroad this situation will soon be rectified.

Come out and give your support to a true American enterprise.

More details will follow at regular intervals, but keep those dates open and in mind, Sept. 11-12-13-14.

The committees appointed to handle the festival are as follows: General Co-Chairmen—L. E. Hodges, Fred Meeske.

Northwest Boy Scouts Awarded at Camporee

The June session of the Court of Honor of the Northwest Suburban Council Boy Scouts of America was held last Sunday afternoon at Camp Dan Beard as the closing feature of the 1941 Spring Camporee.

Scouting is essentially an outdoor program and the majority of the advancements have to do with outdoor activities. It was particularly fitting that the Court of Honor, where the advancement awards are presented, should be presented in a camp setting.

In a very impressive ceremony under the leadership of Eagle Scout Randolph Brooks, Scoutmaster of Troop 31 Skokie, and Council chairman of the Court of Honor, Eagle Scouts Frank Griffin of Troop 2 sponsored by Community church of Park Ridge, Chas. B. Sykora, Scoutmaster; Ralph Hauptly, Scoutmaster; and Howard Wertz of Troop 15 Skokie, sponsored by the Lincoln school P.T.A., S. A. Stenson, Scoutmaster, were presented with their Eagle Scout badges.

Scoutmaster W. C. Gilbert was presented with his second Silver Eagle Palm for having qualified for 30 Merit Badges and three years active service since becoming an Eagle Scout. Eagle Scout Ben Graber of Troop 21, Barrington, was presented with his Bronze Eagle Palm and Willard Gieske of Troop 11, Park Ridge, was presented with his Gold Eagle Palm. In a brief impressive message Charles Garland, Central District chairman of the Court of Honor, paid tribute to the late Uncle Dan Beard who served as National Scout Commissioner and Chairman of the National Court of Honor ever since Scouting was organized 31 years ago. He emphasized that it was particularly fitting to pay tribute to Uncle Dan Beard at this time because 15 years ago he dedicated the cabins of the Oak Park Council on this very site and notched one of the logs in one of the cabins.

Following the tribute to Uncle Dan Beard the audience stood in silence while Bugler Lloyd Silver of Troop 11, Park Ridge, played taps.

Veteran certificates were presented to Scouters of Troop 15 sponsored by the Lincoln school P.T.A. of Skokie as follows: Rev. P. E. Winger, Paul L. Wertz and E. A. Aleckson, five year veterans; and Henry P. Wetmore, troop committee man, S. A. Stenson, scoutmaster and M. C. Ohlson, chairman of the troop committee, ten year veterans.

Mr. George Haney, Central District chairman of the committee on advancement, served as secretary of the Court of Honor and Eagle Scout Victor Baptist of Troop 31, Skokie, conducted the opening and closing ceremonies.

In connection with the program, Scout Executive Donald E. Kyger, paid tribute to Mr. Otto Harz, council chairman of the camping and activities committee for his splendid services as camp chief of the Camporee and his staff for their planning and carrying out of the Camporee program.

Among the awards presented at the Court of Honor were:

America First comments

This department is conducted by Arlington Heights Chapter of the America First Committee.

"Eternal Vigilance is the Price of Liberty." The 263 members of the Arlington Heights chapter of the America First committee are just ordinary American citizens, your neighbors and friends, who believe that the destiny of the United States should not be entangled with the perpetual wars of Europe. We believe that the drive into actual war, unless checked by a determined citizenship, will mean the shedding of American blood uselessly, the destruction of our democracy irretrievably, the bankruptcy and the impoverishment of our country for generations to come. Because we so believe, we cannot do otherwise than raise our voices against the pressure of a minority, trying to drag a reluctant nation into the hell of war.

Who wants war? Certainly not the average plain citizen. All polls have proven conclusively that the overwhelming majority of common people are dead set against a shooting war across the ocean. Are all these millions of born American traitors because they won't give up their sons to face the dive bombers in Dakar, Suez and Singapore? The America First committee believes in a strong America, but an America strong in its own defense, and not in behalf of British imperialism and certainly not in the support of the new ally of Great Britain, Joe Stalin and his gang of cutthroats. When has it become a stigma to stand for America first?

Every American citizen has the right, even the duty, to insist that the peace pledges made by both parties and both candidates for the presidency be kept. The platforms of the Democrats and the Republicans offered clear and unequivocal promises that this country must not and would not become a participant in a foreign war. Candidate Wilkie pleaded for the support of his fellow Americans because he stood for peace and he warned us in a quivering voice that the reelection of Roosevelt would mean war in two months. The president broke the unwritten law against a third term by his saying again and again to us fathers and mothers of America that our boys would not be sent into a foreign war. The people accepted those assurances at their face value.

Every single new act of the administration in pursuance of its foreign policies, we were assured, had only one object, to keep America out of war. All steps down the slippery hill to Armageddon were merely acts short of war. Amending the neutrality act, aiding Great Britain with every type of war material, the passage of the lend-lease bill, were all labeled as measures to assure peace for this nation. The America First Committee is leading the chorus of American voices demanding that these solemn assurances be kept. Is that a crime? Is it unpatriotic to expect the leaders, which the people have elected on the strength of their campaign promises, to keep faith with them? The will of the people is the final verdict. If their will for peace is thwarted by a small minority of powerful war inciters, then democracy has failed here in these United States. Their Lincoln's government of the people and for the people and by the people is just a beautiful memory.

Nazi Germany and Communist Russia at war! The implication of that explosion has knocked the slogans about a crusade for democracy and Christianity into a cocked hat. By refusing to play ball with Hitler, Stalin has put the war-mongers with their pious platitudes on the spot. What will now become of this fight for democracy and the four freedoms all over the world? Red Russia has now aligned herself with the forces claiming to be fighting for democratic liberty against totalitarian barbarism. Has the leopard suddenly changed his spots and become a bleating lamb? Let's not be too trusting. He may still be a wolf, tho' in sheep's clothing. How does America fit into this picture? Which dictator are we going to support? We can even now visualize the frantic efforts of the propagandists for war, trying with soap and lies to wash away the red spot off the beast in the Kremlin. Will the American people fall for that line? We believe not. This terrible new chapter in the imperialistic struggle, we believe, will open their eyes completely to the reality of the situation. It will mean a victory for the forces that want to keep America sane.

No Lady Plumbers, But— Although there are lady plumbers in many states, there are none in Rhode Island, according to Constance Harris, statistician for a newspaper in Providence. But Rhode Island has 23 women paper-hangers, 14 women undertakers, 7 women porters, 4 women stonecutters, 4 women forest rangers, 2 professional fishermen and 2 women auctioneers.

Food in Can Oke! A noted scientist gives us the information that science has discovered that it is not dangerous to save canned foods in the can after it has been opened. They remain in better condition until eaten if the unused portion is kept in the can. There is nothing about the can that will contribute to the spoilage of food.

NEWS OF SPRINGFIELD

by Bernice T. Van der Vries Representative, 7th District General Assembly of Illinois

"Mr. Speaker, I demand that the Journal be read in full. Mr. Speaker, five members ask for a roll call. Mr. Speaker, verify the roll call."

These were just a few of the orders given by the members of the filibustering Democratic party in the General Assembly last week. In the Senate the fight was the warmest and was centered around the Chicago Parks Pegged levy. In the House the strike was a sympathy one, and was more orderly.

The last filibuster of any importance was the one in 1935 which was staged by the Republicans over the issue of Permanent Registration of Voters and the Sales Tax. It lasted five weeks.

The seriousness of the recent filibuster was the fact that it came so close to the sine die adjournment of the session that it threatened to defeat many worthwhile measures.

Term of Buccaneer Days A recent publication of the Federal government in question and answer form says: "Filibuster meant originally a buccaneer such as plundered the Spanish Colonies in America, and later, adventurers who led private armed expeditions with countries with which the country from which they set out was at the time at peace. From this general idea, the term has come to be colloquially used to designate organized obstructionist tactics in legislative bodies. It is the practice of deliberately taking advantage of freedom of debate with a view to delay or to prevent action on a measure under discussion."

Those who witnessed the filibuster of last week can testify that it lived up to the definition.

Every member of the House and the Senate was pleased when the filibuster blew up as it takes much more effort to keep a filibuster moving than to carry on business in a routine way. Moreover, the group not filibustering is inclined to become bored and not on the alert for parliamentary tactics with which to break down the filibusters.

Senate Gets Action The Senate celebrated the close of its difficulty by passing nearly one hundred bills in record time. The House, which is more cumbersome with its larger membership, could not catch up on work as quickly.

Congressional Reapportionment was killed in the House on Thursday night by a vote of 59 to 77. Many reasons why the bill should not pass were given by those who opposed the measure. One said that while the Constitution said that the state must be reapportioned every ten years, the Constitution did not say that this bill must pass. Several members from sparsely populated areas downstate complained that a candidate for Congress would have to drive too many miles in a campaign. Some complained that districts now Democratic would become Republican and others complained vice versa. One member said that he had canvassed 22 newspapers in his district and all were opposed. Thus the Seventh Congressional district of Cook county will continue to have a population of 914,000 and the Fifth also in Cook county will have 103,000 people represented by one Congressman.

Will Appraise Session Next week, if adjournment permits, I shall attempt to give my personal appraisal of what the Session accomplished and what it failed to do. It has been a strenuous session with sixteen hundred bills introduced. It has broken all records in length of bills with the Municipal Code, of 552 pages. I myself have broken my record of attempting to answer all correspondence from my constituents. As chairman of the Municipalities committee in which hearings have been held on 125 bills, as a member of six other committees, as the sponsor of fifteen bills, as chairman of the Illinois Commission on Inter-Governmental Cooperation, and a member of the State Council of Defense, there have not been hours enough to communicate with my constituents individually. To them I apologize and to the newspapers I have given me the opportunity of giving "News from Springfield" I say, "Thank You!"

Modern Styling is Keynote in USO Clubs

In sharp contrast with the barren recreational "huts" of World War days, these modern buildings, which will be erected in more than 360 localities adjacent to military camps and naval bases, are comfortable, home-like structures where the lads in uniform may find facilities for reading, writing, games, social activities or relaxation in off-duty hours.

THE FOURTH

duplicate numbers are all the more reason why you should not forget your Fourth of July button when you go to Recreation park a week from Friday. Numbers of winners will be posted every hour during the afternoon and evening and if you aren't there, your number is taken down and someone else gets the prize.

Arlington Lions and Trade and Civic members have completed final arrangements to keep the five thousand visitors expected on the Fourth busy every minute of the day, from 10 o'clock in the morning when the parade swings out, to the last sparkle of fireworks and the last tune of Wally Hahnfeldt's dance orchestra at midnight.

The Red Wing ball game with Johnson Motors of Waukegan has been called for two o'clock in the afternoon, leaving time for a special softball game at 4:30 between a local all star team and probably an outstanding girls' team from Chicago. The local boys are liable to take a trimming because the major league girls are no slouches on the diamond.

Races for the public have been scheduled for the evening after the heat of the day for which there will also be prizes. Of course the swimming pool and tennis courts will be open. Corn game, games of skill, and other activities throughout the day will keep the ball rolling. All kinds of refreshments will be served.

The day will be climaxed by one of the best fireworks displays on record. Wally Hahnfeldt's orchestra which set attendance records last year will play for dancers in the field house during the balance of the evening. A charge of 35 cents will admit one for the whole evening.

New parking arrangements have been made to accommodate the immense crowds that have heretofore been unable to reach the grounds conveniently. The Lions and Civic members have got their fingers crossed for a fair weather day, and if that hope comes true as it has the past two years, Arlington Heights can look forward to a favorable addition to their community service fund.

St. Mary's church home-coming picnic next week

St. Mary's church of Buffalo Grove, one mile north of Dundee rd. on Route 54, will hold their annual home coming picnic July 4 and 6. A chicken dinner will be served Friday, July 4 from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m. Supper will be served from 5 p. m. to 9 p. m.

The softball game will start at 1 p. m.

Heines orchestra will furnish the music for old style and modern dancing.

This is an annual event and is largely attended by friends of St. Mary's congregation.

Realty firm buys Hildebrandt farm; adjoins Scarsdale

The Hildebrandt farm of 70 acres, lying south of Scarsdale, outside of Arlington Heights corporate limits, was recently purchased by Krause & Kehe, local realty firm. No statement as to development plans have been made by the purchasers, but from its close proximity to the delux subdivision of Scarsdale there is every possibility that it will be held for future development as a high class subdivision.

KARSTENS

With an eye toward keeping down the original cost, Mr. Karstens included no thermostatic or automatic control devices in his air conditioner.

When the home gets too cool the flow of the water into the coils is cut down by merely turning down a valve. If the rooms grow uncomfortably cold the water is shut off entirely and the fan switched off as well. Control valves can be set for average weather conditions, and before retiring valves can be set to permit only a small amount of water to pass through the system.

SALES TAX

Officials of the state finance department took no official cognizance of the new bracket plan, since the tax theoretically is a retailers' occupation tax which the retailer is required to pay.

Illinois retailers point out they have sustained substantial losses during the eight years the retailers' occupation tax has been in effect, because of their inability to recover the full amount of tax paid by them. Such recoveries, it is reported, ranged from 60 to 96 per cent of the tax paid.

Also, various clerical expenses entailed in collection came out of the retailer's pocket. Retailers still maintain that the newly-adopted bracket will not permit them to recover the amount of tax they are required to pay.

This is particularly true with respect to those merchants the bulk of whose sales are made at low price levels, such as druggists, bakers, grocers, variety stores, and restaurants.

Post and Paddock club elects officers

For the thirteenth time Laurence Hearne Armour was re-elected president of the Post and Paddock club of Arlington Park race track at the club's annual meeting June 17.

Also re-elected were Thomas E. Wilson, vice president; Lawrence Stern, secretary and Charles F. Glore, treasurer. Instead of a board of directors the Post and Paddock functions with a board of trustees that this year has been reduced to 15 members. In the group are Messrs. Armour, Wilson, Stern and Glore, ex officio and John D. Allen, P. D. Block, Britton L. Budd, Edward A. Cudahy, Jr., Leonard Florsheim, Maj. Gen. Roy D. Keehn, Otto W. Lehmann, Charles A. McCulloch, Charles S. Pearce, Silas H. Strawn and Harry H. Lobbell.

Under the personal supervision of Mr. Armour the Post and Paddock has undergone a complete renovation. An improvement that will be greatly appreciated is the placing of a runner of plum coloured velvet (matching the carpeting on the twin staircase that leads to the private dining rooms on the second story) from the entrance to the club to the foot of the two steps that lead into the dining room.

The dining room has been completely done over. The racing and hunting murals have been removed and the walls are now all a soft tint of reseda green. The kitchen has been remodelled so as to increase efficiency of service, and humanitarially, — the comfort of the kitchen staff.

The first floor terrace, always the favorite place for luncheon, will be a symphony in red and white. All the sun-umbrellas will be red and white and all the furniture red and white. The amber colonial lanterns that were placed like sconces against the white brick walls have been taken down and in their place are metal baskets filled with green and white vines and red and white geraniums. Since the club itself is of red brick painted white, with a red roof, and red terraces the effect will be as crisp as a plumb red and white peppermint lozenge.

The meeting will be public and all officials of the rural communities of Cook county should be present to help in the never ending battle to protect home rule.

RAILWAY
LABOR UNION DEMANDS
WOULD COST
900 Million Dollars
A YEAR

THE labor unions have made their demands upon the railways of the United States — and through the railways upon the PUBLIC. These demands are vastly larger in proportion than any they have ever made. The economical and efficient operation of the railways is vital to the nation's defense effort. Therefore, the Western Railways present to the public the following facts:

The labor unions representing engineers, firemen, conductors, brakemen and switchmen are demanding a 30 per cent increase in wages, amounting to 190 million dollars a year — although their present rates of pay are the highest in history.

Other unions representing a greater number of railway employees are demanding wage increases ranging as high as 95 per cent — averaging 47 per cent — and amounting to 580 million dollars a year — although their present rates of pay also are the highest in history.

Thus the wage increases being demanded by the labor unions amount to 770 million dollars a year, an average increase in excess of 41 per cent.

In addition, certain of these labor unions have demanded advances in their pay not included in the above figures, and more rules for the creation of unnecessary jobs.

The situation, then, is this: The total cost of complying with all the demands made would be approximately 900 million dollars a year!

The average weekly earnings of railway employees are now 15 per cent higher than in the peak year 1929, while the cost of living is 12 per cent less.

The demands of the railway labor unions are being made when the entire nation has just been asked to make a supreme effort for National Defense.

The railways cannot meet these demands without a great increase in the cost of transportation. They exceed by more than 700 million dollars the income that the railways had left after paying their annual expenses, taxes and charges in 1940.

The railways have a vitally important job before them. They need all their resources to continue adequately to serve you and contribute effectively toward the National Defense Program.

Violet Koeppen becomes bride of Martin Schuett

Miss Violet Koeppen became the bride of Martin Schuett in a beautiful candlelight ceremony held at West Northfield Lutheran church Saturday evening, June 21, at 7:30 o'clock, the Rev. Walter Fechner officiating. Violet is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Koeppen of Wheeling and Martin is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schuett of Glenview.

Violet wore a gown of white dream satin with a sweetheart neckline ruffled in lace, with long fitted sleeves coming to a point above the top of her hand. She wore a long train and a blusher, hung from a Victorian crown. Her necklace was a double string of pearls and she carried a showering bouquet of white roses and sweet peas.

Her sister, Mrs. Willard Schuler, served as matron of honor. She wore powder blue velvety chiffon, with a sweetheart poke to match and carried a showering bouquet of gladioli and delphinium, as did the bridesmaids. Little nine year old Elaine, sister of the bride, was dressed to match the matron of honor and carried a colonial bouquet of the same flowers.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Bud Sanders, cousin of the groom, the Misses Myrtle Kritch and Marion Sander, cousins of the bride, and her friend, Miss Erna Koelper. They were dressed alike in pond lily velvety chiffon. All of the bride's attendants wore heart shaped lockets, a gift from the bride. The bride was given away by her father, William Koeppen, Sr.

Willard Schuler served as best man. The ushers were Bud Sanders and Elmer Metz, cousins of the groom and Bernhard and Andrew Koeppen, brothers of the bride. The men wore tuxedos with boutonnières of white gardenias or carnations.

The bride's mother wore a blue crepe dress and the groom's mother wore blue lace and both carried white accessories. They were corsages of gardenias as did Mrs. Fred Koeppen, the bride's grandmother. A reception was held at the Wheeling Community hall attended by over 300 guests. Refreshments were served at midnight when the large wedding cake was cut. Orchestra music was furnished for dancing. The young couple were showered with many beautiful

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lemke accompanied by their mother, Mrs. Fred Lemke, their cousin, Miss Helen Buesing and Miss Edna Gaitsch of Des Plaines, recently made a trip to Spartansburg, So. Carolina, where they visited Private Clarence Lemke, who is with the 138th Infantry at Camp Croft. Clarence had the week-end off which he spent with them at the cottage which they rented near by. Clarence is nearing the end of his first thirteen weeks of training after which he looks for orders to a new location. He hopes to make a visit home before being transferred. The trip was the Lemke's first visit to the south and they found it very interesting.

Be sure to keep the week-end of July 19 and 20 open for the 14th annual Wheeling Day celebration sponsored jointly by the Chamber of Commerce and the Volunteer Fire Department. Games of all kinds will provide entertainment and music for dancing will again be furnished by the popular Fredricks orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moldenhauer are the proud parents of a baby boy born Saturday morning, June 21. The baby is their first child. The Moldenhauers moved into the Jesse Tesch home just a few days before the arrival of their little son.

Mrs. Louise Schneider of Coleman, Alabama, has been visiting here with her sister, Mrs. E. E. Gieske.

The Walter Scanlon family called on the Kenneth Paulsons of Bensenville last Friday. Mr. Scanlon was off for a week's vacation and the family took the opportunity to make numerous little trips not possible at other times.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Fabry formerly of Lake Forest, are new tenants in the bank building. The Fabrys are newlyweds who came to the flat for their wedding breakfast last Wednesday, June 18. They left the next morning for a honeymoon trip to a suburb of St. Louis and returned on Monday.

The John Meyer family of Elmhurst spent Sunday with Mr. Meyer's parents, the John Meyers of Wheeling.

They will make their home with the groom's parents in Glenview.

Oscar Laurances visit army camp in California

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Laurance and Miss Ruth Grewe returned early Sunday morning from a two week vacation trip to California, covering 6,020 miles. They traveled the southern route going out, making brief stops at the Grand Canyon, the Painted Desert and the Petrified Forest and reached Los Angeles in less than three days.

In Los Angeles they stayed with their aunt, Mrs. Martha Schuerman, who also accompanied them on some of their sight seeing trips. A greater part of their time was spent in visiting some of the boys in camps there.

For three days they made their sleeping headquarters in the guest house at Camp Roberts where Ruth's fiancé, Private Russell Reed, is a member of the infantry. The guest house accommodates fifty persons and is furnished simply but comfortably in army fashion.

While at the camp they looked up Shonny Scharringhausen who is a cook in the artillery section. Shonny says that Uncle Sam provides first class food for his boys, but he admitted that too many inexperienced cooks some times spoil the broth. Shonny should know.

Camp Roberts is a new camp which now houses 20,000 men and expects to enlarge to a capacity of 45,000 by fall. The Illinois license on Oscar's car attracted the attention of many Illinois boys who approached them for a bit of news from the old home state.

On the Sunday out there they made an excursion trip into Old Mexico, accompanied by their cousin, Shirley Schuerman, and Private Reed and Melvin Becker. Melvin is with the coast artillery at Camp Callan near San Diego. Fortunately both boys had the day off.

The same group enjoyed a picnic at San Diego on Monday when they were joined by Marines James Utpadel and Alfred Krueger. The boys all say they are working hard, but all seem to be in fine shape physically. Melvin and Russell expected to be sent out on maneuvers soon and were glad to be in for the visit. While in Los Angeles they also visited Ruth's aunt, Miss Julia Wickersheim and also took time to look in on Hollywood.

They left California early Thursday coming back by a northern

First of all, a correction is to be made—Miss Annetta Bicknese of Itasca is to serve as Zone Christian Service chairman and not Christian Knowledge as was reported last week; Lila Mensching has been appointed Knowledge chairman. Sorry, Annetta, but know you would do well in either capacity.

Last Saturday the operetta cast and chorus had a party at the home of Betty Colba in Arlington. Besides playing ball, having a scavenger hunt, and just playing around, they had eats galore, a nice bonfire and some really good singing, which is to be expected, they being a choral group. Now they are looking forward to going to the sand dunes.

What's the matter with our baseball fans? All the teams in this territory are "going great guns" but it seems there are never many fans to cheer them along. Even the best ball teams need the undying support of their fans if they are to continue being the best, so how about coming out some time and route. They visited Boulder Dam but made few other sight seeing stops for lack of time. The only car trouble was two flat tires and the results of their vacation. No doubt the boys in camp appreciated the choice of their vacation almost as much as they did.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hoffman and children recently spent several days with relatives at Springfield. Shirley Mae is still vacationing there.

The Mother's club enjoyed their annual picnic in the Forest Preserve east of Wheeling last Friday afternoon.

Friday, the 13th, was a lucky birthday for Mrs. Albert Schultz who celebrated in a double fashion. In the afternoon a group of fellow employees met at her home to help her make merry. In the evening her card club met with Mrs. Edward Wesolek, Sr., whose birthday is the same day.

enjoying yourself at a ball game? There are six teams playing regularly — Norwood-Higgins, River Grove, Park Ridge, Schaumburg, Arlington Heights, and Des Plaines. Sunday Arlington beat River Grove 10-7, but we don't have the scores of the other games. The second half of the schedule begins on June 29—that's next Sunday with games between Norwood and Des Plaines, River Grove and Park Ridge, and Schaumburg and Arlington. These games are played at Des Plaines, Park Ridge and Arlington, so have your choice. Let's see how many fans we can have out rooting for the home team.

Monday night the Arlington seniors, juniors, freshmen, and their guests had their first experience as a League skating in the out-doors at Villa Park. It was really most enjoyable with a nice breeze blowing, grand organ music, good floor, and everything else that goes to make up a good skating place. They even put the side flaps down on the tent to keep the mosquitos and bugs away. Why not try it sometime?

ROMANCE? — Henry Fonda seems to have fallen for Barbara Stanwyck judging by the slightly bewildered look on his face and his mussed clothes. Eugene Pallette, at the left, takes it all very seriously. It's in the new Paramount comedy, written and directed by Preston Sturges, which arrives Sunday at the Palatine Theatre. "Devil Dogs of the Air" is the other feature on the bill with Cagney and O'Brien starring, Sunday through Tuesday — 3 days.

Crust Not Best
We have long heard that when we do not eat the crust of our bread that we are losing the very best part of the bread. Experiments at the University of California, however, do not bear out this contention. The university scientists found that more vitamins are baked out of the crust than are baked out of the inner part of the loaf, and thus the essential food elements. Crust is healthful food, and probably should be eaten by most people, but it is not the best part of the bread—at least so far as vitamins are concerned.

Common Law Duties of a Farm Tenant—In the absence of specific agreement covering the manner in which farm property is to be handled by a tenant, the courts have held that certain reasonable duties on his part are implied. Among the principles laid down are the following: Only a reasonable use of the property for the purpose for which it is obtained is permissible; no waste should be committed; the farming should be done in a husbandlike manner; the soil should not be unnecessarily exhausted by negligent or improper tillage, and repairs should be made. In addition a tenant is presumed to conduct the farm business according to well-established customs or usages of the region in which he lives, unless the lease specifically provides or implies otherwise.

While the tenant shall not farm in such a way as to injure the freehold, he is neither required to yield up the tenancy in the same condition as it was when he took it, nor in every respect to have properly tilled, manured or pastured it. On the other hand the tenant can set up no claim for farming the land in a more beneficial manner than was required. Leases are governed by the laws applying to contracts. Where no express agreement appears, rules of common law, statutes and the "customs of the country" govern questions which arise.

Although in the absence of an agreement a tenant does not have to spread manure, he can not in this country, without the consent of the landlord, remove from the farm manure produced from feed grown on the farm.
Among the specific things courts in this country have called waste are over-tillage, unusual rotations, cutting timber, breaking up pastures, altering buildings, cutting hay too early, sowing a pernicious crop, destroying fruit trees, removing ornamental trees, sowing all the land to wheat shortly before the end of the term and selling manure.

The courts distinguish "permissible" waste, meaning damage which the tenant fails to prevent, from "voluntary" waste, meaning damage resulting from positive acts of the tenant. Liability is much greater for voluntary waste.
The doctrine of waste, as it has been developed by the courts, has not furnished an adequate basis for establishing good land usage. Failure on the part of the courts to get scientific information on the problems coming under their scrutiny has sometimes resulted in rules which are not in accord with well established farm management practices.

Sudan grass tops "food-for-defense" emergency feeds

Sudan grass, as well as other emergency pasture crops, will pay off as money crops this year for Illinois dairymen and livestock producers who wish to support the national food-for-defense program and at the same time take advantage of the favorable prices, according to J. C. Hackleman, crops extension specialist of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture.
Fortunately, most of Illinois thus far has escaped the droughts which have hit other sections. Nevertheless many farmers of the state who are depending upon grass pasture, particularly bluegrass, are anxious about emergency pastures which can be sown now to provide succulent feed for their stock during late July and August when bluegrass dries up, Hackleman reported.
"Sudan grass is probably the outstanding pasture crop for late spring or early summer seeding. It has a high carrying capacity during hot weather and provides an abundance of succulent pasture from the middle of July until frost."
Experiments on the college's farm show that an acre of good Sudan grass will carry two dairy cows during that period in the summer when such pasture is sorely needed, it is reported by C. S. Rhode, of the department of dairy husbandry. It has been worth $20 to $30 an acre as a substitute for the feed that would otherwise have to be bought to keep dairy cows going, he said.
Sudan can be seeded any time during the month of June and will be ready for pasture in four to six weeks, Hackleman said. Seeding in a well prepared seedbed at the rate of about 20 to 25 pounds an acre was recommended.
For a combination of pastures, Sudan grass and rye have proved to be one of the best in experiments conducted by the college. Sudan is used for summer pasture and fall-sown rye for fall and spring pasture.

Cupboard Doors
Cupboard doors which are a counterpart of the larger hollow-core flush doors are now available and have all the outstanding features of these doors. They are factory cured and will not sag, warp or swell, are protected against dust and vermin, and are built to reduce moisture absorption. These doors are built to measure, assuring you a perfectly balanced door, and can be made in any kind of wood. Literature showing their adaptability to modern kitchen design is now available.

Forest Land
More than 50 per cent of the area of North Carolina is in forest land.

Hog management more important than ever in '41

With higher hog prices in prospect this year as a result of the government supporting prices around $9 a hundred pounds in connection with the food-for-defense program, farmers are being urged by animal pathologists of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture to use disease-free breeding stock and feed them well-balanced rations.
Growers can make money and at the same time contribute their part to the food-for-defense program if they cut down losses of pigs. To do this will require sanitation and good management, according to the pathologists.

The McLean county system of swine sanitation is recommended to keep parasites and diseases away from the pigs. The system involves scrubbing the sows' udders before farrowing, providing clean, disinfected farrowing houses and raising the pigs on clean ground by means of pasture rotation.
Clean, dry, properly ventilated quarters will help prevent scours, pneumonia and cryptosporidiosis. If the pigs are raised on concrete, a shovelful of clean earth should be put into each pen to prevent anemia, and they should be immunized against hog cholera at weaning time.
If feeder pigs are bought, the pathologists say to keep them separate from the rest of the herd, at least until it is evident that none of them are going to become sick.

Dairymen urged to avoid usual production drop

Illinois dairymen can get extra profits from higher prices and give added support to the food-for-defense program if they avoid the usual 20 per cent drop in milk production from May until September, according to C. S. Rhode, of the dairy department of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

Dairy farmers permitted their milk production to decrease 20 per cent more during this period last year, a normal trend during the hot summer months. The food-for-defense program calls for a 25 per cent increase in evaporated milk production and a 30 per cent boost in cheese production.
Better feeding and management will tend to lessen the heavy seasonal decline in milk production and will result in greater profits. Rhode advises dairymen wishing to keep production at a high level to keep their cows as comfortable as possible by supplying plenty of shade, darkened barns and fresh, cool water, along with an abundance of the right kind of feed.

When pastures are dry, they should be supplemented with grain and hay, if available, or grain and silage. Unless the grass is green and succulent, the grain mixture should contain some protein supplement, such as soybean meal, along with farm grains.
It is profitable to feed the cows well, and every effort should be made to keep the cows in good physical condition, Rhode said.

Cabbage returned as surplus food to fortify meals

Families living in the 14 food stamp areas of Illinois can start serving cabbage salads, cabbage rolls, five minute cabbage and many other cabbage dishes this month with the return of this vegetable to the surplus commodity list.
The food value of cabbage lies in its mineral content and, when eaten raw, in its vitamin C supply, according to nutrition specialist, Miss Grace Armstrong, University of Illinois College of Agriculture. A good mixer, the vegetable officiates salads, stews and casserole dishes.

Five-Minute Cabbage
Cabbage cooked in milk carries an entirely different flavor and is much more nourishing than cabbage cooked in water. Prepared this way it is well liked by children.
Use 2 cups of milk, 1 quart of shredded cabbage, ½ teaspoon of salt, 2 tablespoons butter and 2 tablespoons flour. Bring milk to the boiling point, add the shredded cabbage and bring back to the boiling point. Cook for 2 minutes. Work the flour and fat together and add to the cabbage. Add salt, mix thoroughly and cook rapidly for 4 minutes.

Cabbage Rolls
Hamburger rolled in cabbage leaves provides the main dish for a meal. Season the hamburger and roll it into small but fairly long pieces. Dip the cabbage into hot water just long enough to wilt it so that it rolls easily. Roll it around the meat. Fasten with a toothpick. Place the rolls close together in a skillet. Add a small amount of meat broth or water, cover and cook slowly until meat is done. Remove toothpick and serve.

Summer Salads
One hot weather salad is made of shredded cabbage, celery and green peas; another is shredded cabbage, grated carrots and green pepper; while a third can be made from shredded cabbage and oranges.

21 dairymen make 300 pound butterfat club

Twenty-one dairymen in the Dairy Herd Improvement Association of Cook County have been awarded Honor Roll Certificates by C. S. Rhode, Extension Dairyman for having herds that averaged 300 pounds or more of butterfat during the year which ended December 31, 1940.

This is an outstanding achievement for the Dairy Herd Improvement Association in Cook County. Credit should go to these dairymen who have developed herds to make this outstanding record, and also to Gerrit Laseur, the tester who has served the Association in Cook County for a number of years past. We feel that Mr. Laseur's conservative advice has helped the Association in developing these high class herds of which the county should be proud.

The owners of the herds who made this record are: Corliss Anderson, Carl Bornet, Bingham Brothers, Arthur Croxson, Edison Dick, George Fairweather, Edward Dick, A. T. McIntosh, L. W. Pohlmann, Earl J. Bush, Oscar Landmeier, Louis Luerssen, Wm. J. Mueller, E. Ray Hill, Ballard Moore, S. E. Karsten, H. E. Bell, Glenwood Manual Training School, Herbert Bettenhausen, Wm. H. Warner, and Wm. Rohlwing.

Corn stored in Illinois under AAA moving fast

As an aid in furnishing additional corn supplies to feeders, a total of 619,328 bushels of corn was removed from steel bins and country warehouses for sale and shipment between May 15 and June 1, according to a report from the state AAA office.

This amount is more than was removed from the 4½-month period between January 1 and May 15, only 577,445 bushels being disposed of in this period, the report showed.

Of the 20,169,633 bushels of corn held in steel bins on May 15, a total of 304,184 bushels had been removed from steel bins for sale and 37,433 bushels were removed from steel bins for shipment, by June 1. A total of 278,211 bushels was removed from country warehouses for sale during the 15-day period, leaving 11,232,209 of the 11,510,420 bushels in storage on May 15 remaining in the warehouses.

Lee M. Gentry, state AAA chairman, explained that shipment of corn from steel bins was made to feeders only in order to remove the excess corn from tops of bins to facilitate proper inspection and supervision. Sales of corn from country warehouses have only been made to feeders except in Edgar, Mason and Moultrie counties.

Soil field meet draws attention to U. S. food need

With the possible need for expanding agricultural production in Illinois in connection with the recently announced food-for-defense program, many farmers of Cook county are planning to attend the field day which the University of Illinois College of Agriculture will hold at its Joliet soil experiment field, Tuesday, July 1. The program will begin at 1:30 p. m., according to Farm Adviser C. A. Hughes.

During the past four years the yield of corn on the Joliet field varied from 48 bushels on untreated land to more than 70 bushels an acre for some systems of treatment. The other crops in rotation varied in a similar manner. Experiments with rock phosphate and other carriers of phosphorus have also given some interesting results. Flax has been introduced as a regular rotation crop this year. Other crops grown in rotation include corn, soybeans, wheat, oats and alfalfa.

A definite system of crop rotation is practiced on the field, and a comparison is being made of the different systems of soil treatment. These systems are designed with a step-by-step build-up, which makes it possible to detect soil requirements and to determine the system likely to give the best results under similar soil conditions and cropping systems. Four such systems are used on the Joliet field, and the experiments have been in progress long enough to insure results of definite value to farmers attending the field day, Hughes said.

In addition to Farm Adviser Hughes, A. L. Lang, assistant chief in soil experiment fields, M. H. Nelson and L. F. Marriott, assistants in soil experiment fields, University of Illinois College of Agriculture, will be present to discuss experimental results.
It is also expected that farmers and their local farm advisers will be present from Will, DuPage, Lake, McHenry, Kane, Kendall, LaSalle, Grundy, Kankakee and Tazewell counties.

Cyclist suffers fatal injury in Skokie accident

One motorcyclist was fatally injured and one other seriously hurt about 1 o'clock Sunday morning in an accident on Skokie rd. at the junction with Glenview rd.

Frank Kalfus, Chicago, was riding his motorcycle with Evelyn Geisler, also Chicago, when they struck another bike that had slowed for the light at the above mentioned junction. The bike careened into the side of another auto, its two riders being thrown to the pavement.

Both Kalfus and Miss Geisler were taken to an Evanston hospital where it was determined that Kalfus had suffered a skull fracture while his passenger received cuts and abrasions. Kalfus later died.

Driver of the other bike involved was William Boddie of Wilmette while those in the auto were all Chicagoans.

LIGHTS CONFUSE CHICAGOAN AT RAND AND CENTRAL; TWO CARS COLLIDE

Two cars collided about two o'clock Sunday morning at the junction of Rand and Central rds. when auto lights confused and partially blinded Ray Gore of Chicago.

Gore was traveling south on Rand when lights ahead of him caused him to strike the rear of a car driven by Wilbur Brown, Chicago. Brown had stopped at the junction because two other autos ahead of him had done the same.

Only personal injury was a small cut suffered by Gore. Both cars necessitated towal.

WILLS FILED

PALATINE

Carl S. Jefferson, father of Beverly F. Jefferson, of Palatine, who died in Evanston June 2, left a $35,000 estate. He put in trust with the net income to go to his wife for life, and then the trust estate is to be divided equally between his three children.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

The late Theodore C. L. Keen, of Winnetka, who died June 10, left an $86,000 estate to his family. One provision gives $1,000 to each of three grandchildren who are children of a deceased daughter. They include Muriel Sturm, of Arlington Heights.

MT. PROSPECT

The will of the late Henry Buesing, who died in Mt. Prospect April 20, has just been admitted to probate. It disposes of a $33,000 estate, mostly farm lands in Wheeling township, which he gave to his children in 60 acre tracts. One 60 acre tract is given in trust to his son, William, who is to give its net income to another son, Henry, Jr., of Chicago for five years and then sell the land for Henry's benefit. Sixty acre tracts are given William Buesing of Mount Prospect, Mrs. Henry Carnehl and Ella Lenke, Mount Prospect, his daughters. William Buesing is made executor of the will.

DES PLAINES CONSIDERS PARKING METERS

Parking meters that allow a motorist to park his car one hour for five cents are being considered by the Des Plaines city council. Such a plan would give the city the nearest-to-foolproof parking plan possible. These meters have been installed in many other midwestern cities and have proved a success.

SKOKIE TENNIS COURTS BECOME DANCE FLOOR

Skokie tennis courts in Oakton park in Skokie have become a modern dance floor for the benefit of local residents every Wednesday night. These dances, with a slight charge to cover expenses, will continue throughout the summer.

MUNDELEIN LIONS OFFER BONUS TO SOLDIERS

The Mundelein Lions club has offered five dollars transportation money to any Mundelein man now in this country's armed services who comes home over the Fourth of July week-end. It is hoped that this added inducement will enable several to make the trip which they would otherwise be unable to afford.

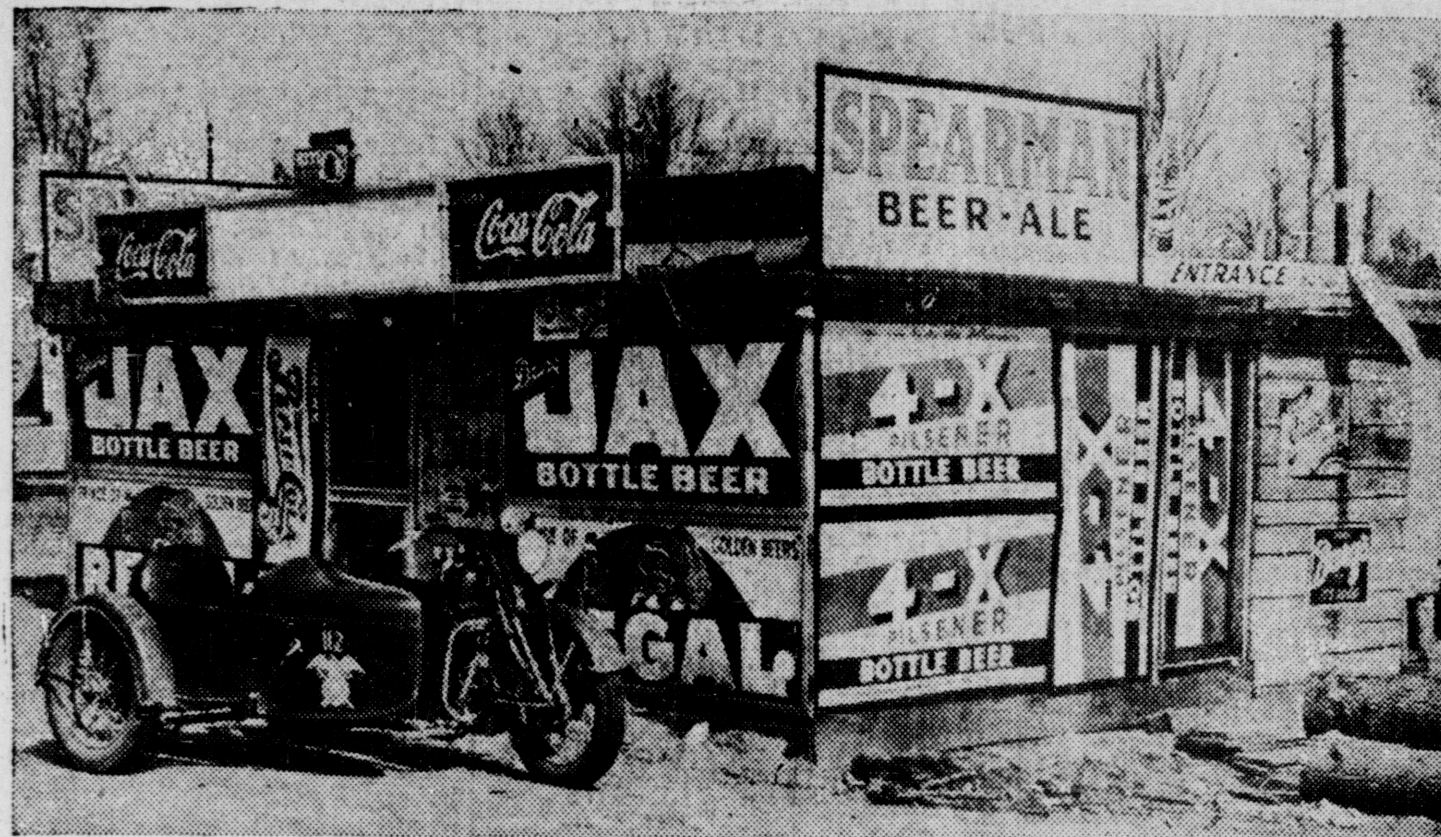

ARLINGTON WOMAN SUES FOR DIVORCE

Mrs. Edna Federwitz of Arlington Heights has sued her husband, Harry, for divorce in Superior court. She says they were married in Des Plaines in 1928 and she was compelled to leave him in 1936 because of his cruelty and drunkenness. Several times they planned to make up but each time she says he turned up drunk and spoiled the plan. They have one child aged 11, a girl. She asks alimony and support for the child.

MOTORIST CHOOSES DITCH OVER AUTO

James Menier, Chicago motorist traveling east on Higgins rd. with his wife Sunday evening, chose the ditch instead of hitting another auto when he misjudged the speed of an approaching auto while passing. His wife was taken to the Northwestern hospital in Des Plaines where she was given first aid for numerous cuts.

TODAY, THE DRAB REALITY

Claptrap bars and juke joints, like the one pictured above, are now unofficial clubs for many soldiers on camp leave because they haven't any other place to hang around. United Service Organizations soon will launch a campaign for $10,765,000 to remedy this situation.

Man attacked and injured by drunken woman sues tavern

Henry E. McNeill has sued Sam M. Sorenson and the National Brick Co. in Circuit court for $5,000 damages for being attacked in Sorenson's tavern in Skokie leased from the Brick Co., by a drunken woman and injured.

SKOKIE AUTOIST INVOLVED IN CRASH ON RAND, NEAR WOLF

Harvey Kretsch, Skokie motorist, was involved early Sunday morning in a crash on Rand rd. near Wolf rd., but was unhurt. Kretsch was hit by Robert Vass of Chicago as both autos were traveling south on Rand.

DES PLAINES AUTOIST HITS CHICAGOAN WHILE MAKING LEFT TURN

Fred Klamer of Des Plaines struck another autoist Thursday evening on Rand rd. while making a left turn onto River rd. Klamer was driving west on Rand when he swung left into the side of an auto driven by Chester Kotecki, Chicago. Klamer stated that he had stopped at the junction and then started across, failing to see the other car. Damage was slight.

HIT AND RUN DRIVER IS CAUGHT FEW BLOCKS FROM PLACE OF ACCIDENT

A hit-and-run driver was caught Saturday afternoon by the same autoist with whom he had collided on Milwaukee ave. near Oakton st. Thomas Cahill, Chicago, was the guilty motorist who sideswiped Roy Swanson, also Chicago, and then continued on. Both autos were traveling north. Swanson gave chase and caught Cahill a few blocks from the scene of the accident.

RAILWAY
LABOR UNION DEMANDS
WOULD COST
900 Million Dollars
A YEAR

THE labor unions have made their demands upon the railways of the United States—and through the railways upon the PUBLIC. These demands are vastly larger in proportion than any they have ever made. The economical and efficient operation of the railways is vital to the nation's defense effort. Therefore, the Western Railways present to the public the following facts:

The labor unions representing engineers, firemen, conductors, brakemen and switchmen are demanding a 30 per cent increase in wages, amounting to 190 million dollars a year—although their present rates of pay are the highest in history.

Other unions representing a greater number of railway employees are demanding wage increases ranging as high as 95 per cent—averaging 47 per cent—and amounting to 580 million dollars a year—although their present rates of pay also are the highest in history.

Thus the wage increases being demanded by the labor unions amount to 770 million dollars a year, an average increase in excess of 41 per cent.

In addition, certain of these labor unions have demanded advances in their pay not included in the above figures, and more rules for the creation of unnecessary jobs.

The situation, then, is this: The total cost of complying with all the demands made would be approximately 900 million dollars a year!

The average weekly earnings of railway employees are now 15 per cent higher than in the peak year 1929, while the cost of living is 12 per cent less.

The demands of the railway labor unions are being made when the entire nation has just been asked to make a supreme effort for National Defense.

The railways cannot meet these demands without a great increase in the cost of transportation. They exceed by more than 700 million dollars the income that the railways had left after paying their annual expenses, taxes and charges in 1940.

The railways have a vitally important job before them. They need all their resources to continue adequately to serve you and contribute effectively toward the National Defense Program.

'Adam had four sons' comes to Catlow

Timeless saga of a family's fight to survive, tense drama of the ageless war of women for the men they love, Columbia's "Adam Had Four Sons," opens at the Catlow Theatre to reveal one of the most amazingly candid stories ever brought to the screen, the heart-warming story of five fascinating men and the women in their lives. Hailed for its intimate, burning reality, "Adam Had Four Sons" is based upon the sensational best-selling novel "Legacy," by Charles Bonner, and stars Ingrid Bergman and Warner Baxter with a stellar supporting cast.

Featured in the memorable new film are Susan Hayward, Fay Wray, Helen Westley, Richard Denning, Johnny Downs and Robert Shaw. Gregory Batoff directed the scenes of unforgettable romance of struggle and of victory which has made "Adam Had Four Sons" one of the most talked-of motion pictures of the year.

They live a love song that needs no music... but the beat of pounding hearts. Irene Dunne and Cary Grant... excitingly reunited... slap-happy with love and without a dime... romancing half-way 'round the world in George Stevens' "Penny Serenade."

The kind of love story you've always wanted for these glorious stars, "Penny Serenade" is a heart-warming, glowing human drama of a newspaperman and his wife, a story for all those who've ever loved... or ever hope to love.

Based upon Martha Cheavens' delightful magazine novel, and adapted to the screen by Morrie Ryskind, "Penny Serenade" opens Sunday at the Catlow Theatre with a supporting cast which includes Beulah Bondi, Edgar Buchanan and Ann Doran.

A murder mystery and the hunt for a lost gold mine, make up a full share of excitement for Hopalong Cassidy in the new Paramount picture, "Pirates on Horseback," which comes to the Catlow Theatre Tuesday. William Boyd plays the title role in this newest Harry Sherman production.

Double featured on Tuesday with "Pirates on Horseback" is "Melody and Moonlight," featuring Johnny Downs and Barbara Allen. James Hilton, author of "Good-bye, Mr. Chips," and "Lost Horizon," has contributed another fascinating story to the screen in "Rage in Heaven," starring Robert Montgomery and Ingrid Bergman, and coming Wednesday to the Catlow Theatre.

It is a suspenseful thriller, based on a "perfect crime," with Montgomery at his best in the powerful role of a man destroyed by his own emotions.

Stanwyck and Fonda make 'Lady Eve' merry

If ever a picture showed promise of being the comedy hit of the year it is Paramount's new excursion into the laugh field, "The Lady Eve," written and directed by Preston Sturges and starring Barbara Stanwyck and Henry Fonda in the chief comedy roles. Featured in the brilliant cast of the picture, which arrives Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Palatine Theatre, are such always-welcome players as Charles Coburn, Eugene Pallette, William Demarest, Eric Blore, Martha O'Driscoll and Luis Alberni.

James Cagney has a role that fits him like the proverbial glove in "Devil Dogs of the Air," which Warner Bros. have returned to the screen, and is also being shown Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. He plays the part of a defiant recruit in the Marine Corps, who finally learns what discipline means. The picture is a thrilling drama of the U. S. Marine Corps. Pat O'Brien is co-starred with Cagney as a fellow Devil Dog. In the cast besides Cagney and O'Brien are Margaret Lindsay and Frank McHugh.

"Wings of Steel," a Warner Bros. patriotic preparedness short subject produced in technicolor, is an added attraction on the program with Mickey Rooney's picture "Private Secretary," this Thursday, Friday and Saturday. One of the most ambitious short subjects to come from Hollywood, it was produced with the cooperation of the United States Army Air

Fun show starts Sunday at Des Plaines theatre

Bing Crosby, Bob Hope and Dorothy Lamour in "Road to Zanzibar," plus Errol Flynn with Brenda Marshall in "Footsteps in the Dark." These are the "who" and "what" that make the double feature, opening Sunday at the Des Plaines Theatre, one of the funniest shows ever presented at this air conditioned playhouse. This program, scheduled for a four-day run, carries a money-back guarantee—your money cheerfully refunded if you fail to laugh.

Currently showing, and closing their runs on Saturday night, are "Free and Easy," a dramatic comedy with Robert Cummings and Ruth Hussey featured in the leading roles; and "Convoy," a thrilling drama of the heroes of the Atlantic starring Clive Brook. The latest issue of Paramount News completes this program.

Boiled Coffee

For making boiled coffee, use regular grind and bring water to a galloping boil. Stir in coffee thoroughly. Let coffee "steep" 10 minutes, come up to a rolling boil—and then withdraw pot to side of range to settle. Pour one-fourth cup cold water into pot to further settle it. Grand old standby method—rapid—and, if well done, most satisfactory, especially for informal meals, busy work days, picnics and all outdoors occasions.

Sleeping Cot

An Iowan has invented a sleeping cot for motor truck relief drivers that extends from a truck's seat under the hood to provide more room in the vehicle for cargo.

Paddock Publications Amateur Links Tourney Studied With Stars

District's outstanding amateurs to vie for local supremacy at Mohawk July 13 & 20

by TOMMY KOUZMANOFF

A strong field of about fifty of the outstanding shot-makers of the district will compete in the 1st Annual Paddock Publications Amateur Golf Tournament to be played over the difficult Mohawk Country Club in Bensenville on consecutive Sundays, July 13 and 20. Eighteen holes will be played each day with starting times to begin at 11 a. m. The entry fee of $2.00 includes greens fees and locker room accommodations for the duration of the meet.

Play will be for two large, handsome trophies, one for the low gross champion and the other for the low net list. Both awards cannot be won by one player—the contestant with the lowest gross score over 36 holes will be declared the low gross winner and the player with the lowest net after his handicap has been deducted will receive the low net prize.

Editor-Publisher, Stuart Paddock, Sr., will make the awards at the scoring table adjoining the 18th green immediately following completion of official final postings on the score board. Ties that necessitate playoffs will be over the eighteen-hole route on the following Sunday (July 27). A CDGA handicap is not necessary to compete. Those not having a handicap club handicaps will gain their handicaps from their first round score.

CDGA Handicap System To Be Used

The Chicago District Golf Association's Automatic Handicap System, innovated by Tom McMahon, will be used. For the benefit of prospective contestants we have explained this system of handicapping in "Short Putts."

The tournament will be open to all male amateur golfers residing in the area covered by the six Paddock Publications as well as members of private clubs in this district. Entrants are urged to rush in their blanks in order to insure participation in the tourney. At the rate entries are pouring in now it may become necessary to close the list sooner than the announced date of July 7.

Scott Kinnaman First To Enter

The honor of being the first competitor to enter the meet goes to Scott Kinnaman of Bensenville. Runner-up honors also go to Bensenville—Jordan ("Jiggs") Spiroff, former Mohawk locker room man, personally delivering his entry. A dozen other entries lay on our desk at writing time of the article, Sunday evening. Heading the list: Glanz Dierking of Bensenville, Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul & Pacific Railroad champ in 1940; Robert Geils, Bensenville high's ace golfer of two years ago; Glenn Guthrie, winner of an industrial championship at White Pines last year with a 75; Carl Lits, Bensenville, a lad that really whacks the dickens out of his woods; J. B. White, Jr., of Itasca, one of the district's better golfers and always a tournament threat; Ernie Simmons, founder of the Arlington Heights Twilight Golf league, should be well up among the leaders. Mohawk Club Manager Ed. Hensley informed us this afternoon to expect word from several of their members this week, namely, Johnny Graw, runner-up in the 1940 Cook County Amateur, and

Arlington golf news

Calling All Golfers! The Arlington Twilight Golf League needs more golfers. With vacations taking men away every week, alternates can almost be assured of playing every week in competition. There is still time to play enough to cash in on the prizes which will be awarded at the end of the season. To be eligible for prizes, alternates only have to play 10 times in competition, and our schedule takes us into the first week in October. Any Golfers who would like to play in the league, which plays every Thursday evening beginning at 6:00 p. m., need only to play nine holes at Mt. Prospect Country Club and turn in their score card to establish their handicap.

Thursday, June 19, finds the Poole Fords still in first place, closely followed by Neuman Barbers, Paddock Publications and Winkelman's Tires.

Bensenville beaten 9-8 in hot battle

Bensenville	3 2	600

Charlie O'Hagan got his CYO team past two of their toughest hurdles last week when the boys beat Benjamin Electric and Iroquois of Bensenville.

CYO tied the score against Benjamin in the third inning at four—all when Kauffman, Benjamin twirler, blew up, allowing four walks and two hits.

One of those hits was "Fireball" Lou Brodman's double with two men on the bases.

Jordan was touched for two runs and the ball game in the fifth when the same Brodman tripled, there were two walks and the usually reliable Intravatoletto booted a ground-er at second. Final score was 6-4.

The two Benjamin pitchers issued a total of fifteen passes in seven innings, which brings them close to the 1941 record of the Arlington Park Jockey Club.

Menella was no Scotchman himself, giving up six passes with the five hits which Benjamin notched.

The CYO-Iroquois game on Sunday evening, between two teams virtually tied for the league lead, was as full of excitement as a Gene Autry thriller.

At the end of four innings the Bensenville team had a 6-2 lead and "Kiki" Eickelman looked invincible.

The CYO got their first hit in the third inning when Augie Mayerck singled after Mert Taylor had stolen second and taken third on a short passed ball.

In the fifth Millay beat out a perfect bunt and the next three men walked. L. K. Brodman struck out, Goedke flied out, but Menella, fiery CYO pitcher singled sharply to drive in two runs.

Two walks, a throwing error, and an infield out scored two more runs for CYO in the sixth. The score was then 7-6, CYO.

Iroquois promptly went ahead again in the seventh on two hits and an error at second base, getting two runs for an 8-7 score.

In the last of the seventh L. Brodman walked, L. K. "Fireball" Brodman was safe when Dierking dropped a perfect throw at first on an easy play, Goedke slammed a single to center field, tying the score, and Kolze kicked Menella's sharp grounder at second base, letting the winning run across, and CYO was the winner, 9-8.

Bensenville beat Creamery Package on Tuesday night as Eickelman pitched the first no-hit game ever accomplished in local league play.

The young Iroquois twirler was wild, as usual, walking nine, but he had excellent support. Several line drives were snared by alert Bensenville fielding.

Meanwhile the Iroquois team piled up nineteen runs on sixteen hits, eight walks and two errors. Heidorn's remained within striking distance of the lead by beating Hoppers of Mt. Prospect on Tuesday night last week, 13-7.

Steve Urik pitched another excellent game for six innings after which Charlie Nick had a one-inning workout. This last inning was notable for two walks, a home run by Roy Goedbert, and two strikeouts.

Wildness hurt Wallie Bach's trophies to be presented to the members of those teams, at the end of the season.

Two Major Race Stakes Friday and Saturday

Arlington Park has fine opening

With some 15,000 race fans in attendance a perfect day and well matched fields, the Arlington Park Jockey Club opened its 34 day meeting in grand style Monday afternoon.

Ladies day brought an outpouring of the fair sex and this coupled with the regular race fans, made one of the largest opening day crowds in the track's history.

Nearly $400,000 went through the mutual windows in a surprisingly big increase in play over the past years opening days.

The big crowd enjoyed itself to the limit and there were plenty of thrills from the photo finish in the first race on down through the entire program, including the victory of a 35 to 1 shot first starter and many thrilling finishes.

Every section of the big racing plant had its quota of patrons. The big grandstand was well filled and the enclosure lawn looked like a holiday afternoon.

The Post and Paddock club had a fine outpouring of members including many persons prominent in social, political and business life.

Many thousands of fans watched the saddling of the horses in the open air walking ring before each race and in general the big crowd wandered all over the place and enjoyed itself to the fullest extent.

On all sides were evidences of the pains the management had taken to make the public feel at home and to care for everyone's comfort.

Many extra seats were available on the lawns and terraces where the fans who like to be close to chances to win as he was hit hard when he eased up for control.

Gaare's beat Leo's in the Thursday night game by a score of 12-1. Three singles in the fifth inning scored the only run for the barbers although they threw away a scoring chance in the first by poor base-running.

Chuck Hamburg and Bill Ninneman were the leading Leo hitters with two-for-three by each.

The Gaare team gave Hayes excellent support, especially on the side of offense. Taegs, Tossman and the two Weisgerbers hit doubles while George Weisgerber and Ed Hubltz slashed out home runs off the pitches of Ed Mueller. Taegs, Hubltz, Tossman and Kehe also turned in some good fielding plays on hard hit balls.

Carl Huber stayed on top in hitting by the simple process of being unable to play against Hoppers.

Earl Weisgerber of Gaare's and Drewes of Benjamin Electric are now tied for second place with .500 averages.

Augie Mayerck of CYO is fourth with .467 and Roger Hertel of Gaare's is next with .455.

W. Rudolph, Lamantia, and J. Brodman, all of Benjamin Electric are close behind.

George Weisgerber celebrated his departure for the army by getting a double and a home run against Leo's, scoring two runs and driving in four.

CDGA Automatic Handicap System Explained

This method of handicap computation is advised in cases where business, professional and novice tournaments are held in the absence of accurate handicap records.

1. Prepare slips numbered from 1 to 18 (representing the 18 holes). Handicaps are based on 9 of these which shall be selected in the following manner.

In order to equalize the difficulty of the holes place all the numbers representing 3 par holes in a receptacle, all the numbers representing 4 par holes in a second receptacle, and all the numbers representing 5 par holes in a third receptacle. In making the drawings, draw 2 numbers out of the first (3 par) receptacle, 5 numbers out of the second (4 par) receptacle, and 2 numbers out of the third (5 par) receptacle.

2. In computing each individual's handicap, take the total score made on the 9 holes drawn. When the total score for the 9 handicap holes is obtained, multiply it by two. This result will produce an 18 hole score upon which the handicap will be based.

Example: Score for 9 holes drawn . . . 51

51 multiplied by 2 . . . 102

A score of 102 on the Chicago District chart under a 72 par course will produce a handicap of . . . 24

If the actual 18 holes score was 97 And the handicap is . . . 24

The net score will be . . . 73

Editor's note: Don't try to suggest a better system . . . There just isn't any.

It Happened Here

The catalpa party is over, the candles have burned out and the tired waiters have gone home, leaving things a bit untidy; the ground is strewn with crushed and faded candle shades. But this is syringa week; with the rain keeping things cool and fresh under the green shelter of the tree roofed conservatory, syringa has come to its peak; the blossoms are so freighted with water that they droop gracefully in dripping sprays over the fence, down to the grass, arching the walks and spilling their overload down the necks of unwary passers. Days, not to say weeks, of rain have inured us to the feeling of living under water and in our proper element; looking up thru the sea-green lights of leafage in the rain we have the sensation of being deep-sea creatures, sharing the depth and coolness of green grottoes. There is a more than sizeable rain pool in our alley which is a menace to foot passengers and even cars slow down and change

Do you fly off the handle when your temper gets the best of you? The very life of the early American settler depended on his rifle and his axe. When the latter flew off the handle, meaning, of course, that the axe would be useless until a new helve could be secured, we may be sure that the unfortunate backwoodsman expressed his chagrin in a thunderous denunciation of the poor implement.

Vacuum-Type Glass Coffee For making vacuum-type glass coffee-maker coffee, use pulverized grind, and either hot or cold water. Place unit over upper bowl, reduce heat. Water should remain in upper bowl 4 to 5 minutes. Stir before removing from heat; fine, clear, thin or "dry" coffee infusion with unadorned taste. Some "time-lag" in making, if you're in a hurry, but good at any meal.

gears before dipping into it, but it is a beautiful reflector; the syringa bush, drooping its blossomed sprays over the corner of the neighbor's fence is delicately reflected in it, along with the deep grassy margins, the telephone pole and wires, the flight of birds and the movement of clouds. It is a mystery pool which no amount of ashes and gravel seems able to fill. . . . Pearl is in the basement, singing hymns to the regular clack-clack of her iron and there is a peaceful rhythm to the activities of the birds, weaving back and forth over the vacant lot, intent on lawful domestic matters; the group of lilies in the grass under the apple tree is too vivid, unseasonable, July offering a red, red cup to June; while Pearlie hums and slams, the green van turns into the lane and stops at the little side gate across the way, conjuring up thoughts of caravanning on country roads and down by the creek where bluebells grow. Some day, when Pearlie is singing, "Shall We Gather At The River?" that tantalizing van is going to turn up missing.

President Taft Was Right Criminal lawyers, who have wide experience with a woman witness, agree that the greater difficulty with the female is that she is willing to tell more than her attorney wants her to. So marked is this tendency that the late William Howard Taft, immediately after being nominated for the presidency, was quoted as saying: "Get a woman off the witness stand as soon as you can. There seems to be something in the feminine makeup that causes her to tell more than her lawyer wants her to tell."
